

Joint Vietnamese-German webinar “Unlocking Green Hydrogen Opportunities: Germany & Vietnam in Focus”

Unlocking Green Hydrogen Opportunities: Germany & Vietnam in Focus

Dive into the future of sustainable energy at our webinar, where experts from Germany and Vietnam converge to explore the potential of green hydrogen. We will discuss hydrogen policies in both countries and present both national as well as international projects. With our exchange we want to strengthen the networks in both countries and act as a starting point for future joint activities.

- Date: Thursday, 20 February 2025
- Time: 08:30-10:30 am CET / 2:30-4:30 pm Vietnamese time

Who should attend?

Industry leaders, policymakers, researchers, and anyone passionate about the green energy transition.
